

Scientific Policy

1. Dedalus – Portuguese Journal of Comparative Studies has as its mission the development and publication of national and international research in the field of comparative studies.
2. Dedalus is an annual publication magazine. From 2019, all papers will be on open access, with the exception of the last issue, which will have an embargo of one year.
3. Papers presented to Dedalus are necessarily submitted to double blind peer review. Peer review respects all conflicts of interest, including independence between authors and reviewers.
4. It is required that no more than two thirds of the authors published in a journal's issue belong to the same institution.
5. Papers submitted must be originals and cannot be yielded to another entity.
6. Papers must always be submitted in double electronic format (word/.doc(x) – pref.) and PDF. They must be sent to dedalus.revista@gmail.com
7. Submit the Title Page containing the Author(s) details and Blinded Manuscript with no author details as 2 separate files.
The Title page should include the following data: title of the paper, author(s)' names and affiliations, full address, phone number and e-mail address.
8. Authors should employ Dedalus' guidelines in submitting their articles.
9. Authors will receive a printed copy of the volume and the electronic version of their paper.
